Public Comments:

Rob Cronauer said, with respect to my issue with strip mining out there on Swigle Mountain Rd. . . Mr. Barbin, are you representing the Township or the Greater Johnstown Water Authority? Solicitor Barbin said, I'm not representing either here on this issue. I got to pretty much stay out of it because I am the attorney for both. Cronauer asked, who would represent Jackson Township then or maybe nobody represents unless something comes up. Barbin replied, if a Zoning issue comes up it will come to the Zoning Hearing Board who already has their own separate attorney. . . Attorney Webb and if George Burkey needs advice on filing something, we'd have to come up with somebody different. Chairman Baker said, right now the Board of Supervisors is handling everything. If we see the need for Council, we'll seek that. Barbin continued, the Water Authority actually hired another attorney to handle these matters. Cronauer asked is that Heath? Barbin replied, yes. . Heath Long of the firm Pawlowski Bilonick & Long in Ebensburg.
