Correspondence:

Manager Hirko said, we received a letter from Holly Mertens, Board Secretary of the Central Cambria Midget Football League. They are asking that we consider a donation to the League as they are purchasing new concussion ready helmets to protect the kids playing. She said that in return, they will list us as a Sponsor in their home game programs, on a sponsor sign at the field and on their web site. She said they have approximately 20 players and cheerleaders participating in the League.
