Public Comments:

Ed Smith commented on a concern about odor coming from the Sewage Pump Station on Harmony Drive. He requested that the Supervisors contact JETSA and inform them of his complaint and asked for a written response. Chairman Baker told Mr. Smith that Mr. George Burkey of JETSA was present and asked Mr. Burkey if he had heard Mr. Smith's complaint. George Burkey said he did but nobody else has complained. He also said that his own Daughter lives there and she has not complained about the odors but assured Mr. Smith that they would address his concerns at JETSA's Monthly Meeting the following evening. Smith said I hope so because I have complained numerous times to your Board but nothing has been done.

Cameron Hoffman asked if they could have a paragraph in the Township's Newsletter explaining about them trying to raise money for a proposed skate park. Chairman Baker said they would make room for a paragraph in the Newsletter.
