

SIGHT & SOUND THEATRE

Saturday, March 21st

“Behold The Lamb”

Travel to beautiful Sight & Sound Theatre in Strasbrug to experience the Easter Story as only Sight & Sound can do. The Sight & Sound elaborate production will feature a cast of hundreds and even live animals. “Behold the Lamb” is one of the most popular productions of Sight & Sound and one you won’t want to miss.

The day begins with taking some time to visit the Kitchen Kettle Village shops in Intercourse, PA. This is a popular tourist stop with over 45 shops, live music and you can even sample delicious homemade goodies in this quaint outdoor village.

After visiting the Kitchen Kettle Village shops, we will travel to the famous Shady Maple Smorgasbord for lunch where you will experience an wide array of over 100 homemade entrees, dishes, salads, soups and desserts. Be sure to bring an appetite! After lunch, take some time to browse through the huge Shady Maple Gift Shop.

Depart Jackson Elementary School (Mundys Corner) at 6:00 am on Lodestar luxury tour buses and arrive back at approx. 11:00 pm. Cost is $129.00 per person and includes smorgasbord at the Shady Maple and your ticket to the Sight & Sound Theatre. Payment is due by February 20, 2009 being this is a ticketed event and will be sold out. Don’t miss out on this spectacular performance!

Mail reservation and payment to: Jackson Township, 513 Pike Road, Johnstown, PA 15909

Name: _____ Seats Needed: _____

Phone #: _____ Alt Phone #: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____
