

Ohio Amish Country

Saturday, May 31st, 2014

Join us for a relaxing day in Ohio Amish Country! We will have several stops for some great shopping in Berlin, the heart of Ohio Amish Country.

Enjoy breakfast (on your own) at Das Dutch Haus followed by a visit Lehman's Hardware in Kidron, Ohio where you'll find many unusual and interesting items – a little bit of everything!

Stop at Smuckers store in Orrville, OH where you will find out that they make a lot more products than jams and jellies. Enjoy some browsing, shopping and sampling time.

We will then travel to the heart of Amish Country, Berlin where there will be lots of time to browse Sol's Craft Mall, home to over 400 crafters and the largest in Ohio. Berlin also is home to over 50 quaint and unique shops.

We will then be stopping in Sugarcreek at the Dutch Valley Restaurant where you can enjoy Amish Family Style Dining or order off the menu (on your own). There are also several nice gift shops, food store and bakery where you can take home some goodies!

Buses will depart Jackson Elementary (Mundys Corner) at 5:00 am via Lodestar luxury tour buses and arrive back at approx. 11:20 pm. We will have a rest stop on the way to breakfast in Ohio and coming back after dinner in West Virginia. Cost is only $ 38.00 per person for bus transportation to and from Amish Country (driver tip include). Meals are not included. For additional information call 749-0725.
